

Freelance Facilitator: Urban Wild support role

Role Title:

Urban Wild support role

Hours/Pattern of Work:

3 hours per week for set weeks of delivery on Thursdays 3:30-6:30 pm
First block of 6 weeks starting early June 2025, next cohort dates TBC

Salary / payment

£50 / session paid on receipt of invoice

(It is the post-holder's responsibility to declare this income if it takes you over your trading allowance)

Location/Primary Place of Work:

Primary place of work is the St Nicks Environment Centre and Local Nature Reserve (LNR).

Main Purpose of the Job:

This freelance role will support delivery of our new Urban Wild youth engagement sessions. These new sessions will take place on Thursdays 4:30-6pm for young people aged between 11-16 with blocks of 6 weeks delivery set over the year. The sessions will work with young people offering them a chance to engage with the outdoors and nature with a series of workshops with different themes. The session will be delivered by an experienced facilitator and this role will support them during the session. You will be expected to:

- Support session setup and some planning
- Support the lead facilitator in delivery of the session
- Engage with young people within a nature-based environment
- Support with session close down

Qualifications/Person Specifications (Skills and Knowledge/Values and Personal Attributes):

- Experience of behaviour management when working with young people
- Experience of managing conflict in a youth setting
- Experience of delivering or supporting youth or community sessions
- Good communication skills
- DBS
- Safeguarding Level 1

Working Conditions:

A mixture of indoor and outdoor working. Some sessions are physical in nature, with ample capacity for reasonable adjustment.

How to apply

If you are interested in this opportunity, please submit a CV and covering letter detailing your experience and suitability for the role to education@stnicks.org.uk

For further information please contact education@stnicks.org.uk